LENT PROJECT – OXFORD COMPANIONS OF THE ORDER OF MALTA

The Oxford Companions of the Order of Malta are students from the University who offer their time and energy to serve the poor and marginalized in Oxford, according to the traditions of the Order of Malta.

The Order of Malta is the world's oldest charitable organization and operates in over 120 countries.

The Oxford branch of the Companions works with the elderly and homeless in the city.

There will be collection boxes at the back of church to take away, a second collection on Sunday 13th March, and a special Mass at 6pm on Thursday 18th February – after which will be the opportunity to meet some of the Companions and find out more about their work.
